

Say When
The Fray

Intro:

F#m A D A
F#m A A Bm

Verse: F#m A D Bm

I see you there, don t know where you come from Unaware of a stare from someone
Don t appear to care that I saw you and I want you

What s your name cause I have to know it
You let me in and begin to show it
We re terrified cause we re heading straight for it, might get it

You been the song playing on the background
All along but you re turning up now
And everyone is rising to meet you, to greet you

Turn around and you re walking toward me
I m breaking down and you re breathing slowly
You say the word and I will be your man, your man

Chorus: D A Bm F#m
D A F#m E

Say when and my own two hands
Will comfort you tonight, tonight
Say when and my own two arms
Will carry you tonight, tonight

Verse: F#m A D Bm

We re coming close and then even closer
We bring it in but we go no further
We re separate, two ghosts in one mirror, no nearer

Later on if it turns to chaos
Hurricane coming all around us
See the crack, pull it back from the window, you stay low

Chorus: D A Bm F#m
D A F#m E

Say when and my own two hands
Will comfort you tonight, tonight
Say when and my own two arms
Will carry you tonight, tonight

Verse: F#m A D Bm

Come across you lost and broken
You re coming to but you re slow in waking
You start to shake, you still haven t spoken, what happened

They re coming back and you just don t know when
You want to cry but there s nothing coming
They re gonna push until you give in or say when

Now we re here, and it turns to chaos
Hurricane, coming all around us
Double crack throws you back from the window, you stay low

It all began with a man & country
Every plan turns another century
Around again, another nation fallen

Maybe God can be on both sides
Of the gun, never understood why
Some of us never get it so good, so good

Some of this was here before us
All of this will go after us
It never stops until we give in

Chorus: D A Bm F#m
 D A F#m E

Say when and my own two hands
Will comfort you tonight, tonight
Say when and my own two arms
Will carry you tonight, tonight

Say when and my own two hands
Will comfort you tonight, tonight
