You re not always gonna miss her t-t-t-touch

(pretty easy so you can do it from here)
You lock yourself in your room
You keep the curtains closed to help seal in the gloom
Your bedclothes still stink of her stale perfume

But you hope the smell doesn't vanish too soon

I know it's hard to bear

Difficult to watch, hard not to care

When it means so much

And it's hard to bear but not impossible as such

Hard to bear but not impossible as such

You're not always gonna miss her touch
