Am Give me mercy and a minute now. I'm bleed a little poison
C out. I'm cry a little river down, then I'm setting this whole Am thing on fire. And I'm burning up the night she died. I'm C putting every last picture aside, I'm gonna say what I need to G say. In my very last letter to you Cause you always made it
F clear, said you'd never be my pain. So here's to you and your
G bright baby blues, just a pause to cool the refrain.

F And you said were satisfied, that this body just weighted the C tide. And that you missed him sometimes, but you said it s all right, its just a whole lot harder alone.

Am C/B F x 3 G

C But I wish you knew her now. She's the better side of me now.
F I'm doing the best I can. That s what you da wanted. And I see looked just like, it was 1930 that night.

F

F C
I found the sound, and if this heart keeps pouring it out,
G
The glory hasn t come, and it s probably gonna fade, like a tattoo that hides this shame. But reasons always fade.
Am F
C
The pain gives out some day. So Iâ€™m saying my goodbyes to your G Am C/B F
deep blue eyes, cause I donâ€™t know how say, to stay still Am C/B F Am C/B F G
