

American Slang
The Gaslight Anthem

American Slang(acoustic) by The Gaslight Anthem
I tabbed this from the Sirius radio version on youtube so watching that might help, it s a bit different from the original tuned a full step down in true brian fallon fashion

D,G,A

Bm
Look what you started,
G A
I seem to be coming out of my skin
Bm
Look what youâ€™ve forgotten here
G A
The bandages just donâ€™t keep me in

Bm
And when it was over
G A
I woke up alone
Bm
And when it was over
G A
I woke up alone

Bm A G D
And they cut me to ribbons and taught me to drive
Bm A G D
I got your name tattooed inside of my arm
Bm A G D
I called for my father but my father had died
G A D
While you told me fortunes, in American Slang

Bm
Look at the damage,
G A
the fortunes came for the richer men.
Bm
while weâ€™re left with gallows,
G A
waiting for us liars to come down and hang.
Bm
And when it was over

G A
I woke up alone

Bm
And when it was over

G A
I woke up alone

Bm A G D
And they cut me to ribbons and taught me to drive

Bm A G D
I got your name tattooed inside of my arm

Bm A G D
I called for my father but my father had died

G A D
While you told me fortunes, in American Slang

Bm A G
And here's where we died that time last year,

Bm A G
And here's where the angels and devils meet.

Bm A G
And you can dance with the queen if you need,

D G
And she will always keep your cards

A D
Close to her heart oooh

G A
So close to her heart

D
before they tear you apart

D,G,A

(He sings this differently, but the chords are the same)

Bm A G D
And they cut me to ribbons and taught me to drive

Bm A G D
I got your name tattooed inside of my arm

Bm A G D
I called for my father but my father had died

G A D
While you told me fortunes, in American Slang

G A D
You told me fortunes, in American Sla
