Am G F C
I haven t seen Sandy, Angry Johnny, or Mary

Am G F C
I heard they got married, might have had a couple of babies

Am G F C
They traded their memories for Fairview and Acres,

Am G F C
they never played no pinball or get out past the breakers

Am C G Am
But not me pretty ba-a-a-by,

Am C G Am
We still love Tom Petty songs and driving old men crazy

Am C G Am
And not while Little Eden is waiting

Am C G Am
So you sing me a slow song, and I ll drive you crazy

Tonight, yeah

Am G F C
But all I want is for you to be all right and satisfied

Am G F C
Brothers and sisters, know that any time or late at night

Am G F C

If you call I will answer, I m open ears though tired eyes

Am G F C

While the world closed it s arms on us now

Am C G Am

Can I get a hung witness, pretty ba-a-a-by?

Am C G Am

We still love Tom Petty songs and driving old men crazy

Am C G Am

And not while Little Eden is waiting

Am C G Am

So you sing me a slow song, and I ll drive you crazy

Tonight, alright, alright, Alright, alright

So you sing me a slow song, darlin I ll drive you crazy

(soloing in outro is the same as in the bridge)

F F C G F F

Tonight, all right all right,

C G F F

All right, all right

C G

Tonight! Hey!

F F

For tonight, tonight

C G Am

And I ll drive you crazy tonight
