[Verse 1]

C
Mary, this station is playing every sad song

Am
I remember like we were alive

C
I heard and sung them all from inside of these walls

Am
In a prison cell, where we spent those nights

C
And they burned up the diner where I always used to find her

Am
Licking young boys blood from her claws

C

And I learned about the blues from this kitten I knew

Am

Her hair was raven and her heart was like a tomb

[Pre-chorus]

Guitar 1

F

G

My heart's like a wound

[Chorus]

Am

C

C

Everybody leaves, so why, why wouldn't you?

[Verse 2]

C

Mary, I worried and stalled every night of my life

Am

Better safe than making the party

C

And I never had a good time, I sat my bedside,

Am

With papers and poetry about Estella

[Pre-chorus 2]

Guitar 1

F G F G

With great expectations, we had the greatest expectations

[Chorus]

Am F C G

I saw tail lights last night in a dream about my first wife

Am F C G

Everybody leaves and I'd expect as much from you

Am F C G

I saw tail lights last night in a dream about my whole life
