Howl - The Gaslight Anthem
-----

Standard Tuning
Tabbed by LesThanPaul

I have the chords in standard so people wouldn't have to de-tune, but if you wanna play it like Gaslight drop to D standard (DGCFA<sub>d</sub>) and then use the transpose thing to move it up 2 half-steps. The background vocals in the last chorus are not matched up with the chords, but are on the appropriate lines.

Start on C

Am G F C
Hey-ey ey ey ey
Am G F C
Hey-ey ey ey ey
Am G F C
Hey-ey ey ey ey
Am G F C
Hey-ey ey ey ey

C G
Hey wake it up! Hey shake it out!

F G
Does anything still move you since you're educated now?

C G
And all grown up and traveled so well

F G
Do you still hear the sound of the thunder while you lie up by yourself?

Am G F C
Like you waited on his call and made your plans for great escapes

Am G F C
And there used to be a movement in the way your dress would wave

G
From your hips on down like electric through the ground

Am G F C
Hey-ey ey ey ey

Am G F C
Hey-ey ey ey ey

C G
Now do you blow it out come Friday night?

F G
See if you wanna, you can find me on the hood under the moonlight

C G
Radio [oh radio], oh radio [oh radio],

F
do you believe there s still some magic left

G
Somewhere inside our souls?

Am G F C
Like I waited on your call and made my plans to share my name

Am G F C
And I love the country movement in the way your dress would wave

G
From your hips on down like electric through the ground

Am G F C
Hey-ey ey ey ey
[Sound of the cars rushing the rain on the boulevard]

Am G F C
Hey-ey ey ey ey
[In this city by the sea that has always haunted me]

Am G F C
Hey-ey ey ey ey
[And belonged to me somehow. Bless your waters and your doubts]

Am G F C
Hey-ey ey ey ey
[Bless your waters. Bless your doubts]
