C#m B A E
I ll never forget you my American love and I ll always remember you, wild as they come

The place where you were in my heart is now closed

I already live with too many ghosts

Now everybody lately is living up in space

Flying through transmissions on invisible airwaves
A B C#m
With everything discovered just waiting to be known
A B C#m
What s left for God to teach from his throne?
A B E
And who will forgive us when he s gone?

 So take what you need now Honey and do what you like
