Were Getting A Divorce You Keep The Diner The Gaslight Anthem

Em

We were the magnificent dreamers.

 $\mathbf{E}\mathbf{m}$

In secret lamplight hideouts.

Em

We swore the world couldn t break us,

Em

Even when the world took us down.

Em C

So here I am struggling out in the mighty jungle,

Moving eighteen miles a minute, not slowing down for nothing.

Em C

I look to my left and I look to my right,

G

And I m callin out for my brothers

D

But it s so dark in this night, am I alone?

 $\mathbf{E}\mathbf{m}$

Did they fall down by the wayside?

Em

Was I moving too blind to see them?

 \mathbf{Em}

Were they calling out to me?

Em

Or did Despair set in?

Em C

Were the things that we wanted when we were still sixteen,

G

Only passing and fleeting, or just too far out of reach?

am .

Were you hard up or broken man, I woulda helped you out...

Were you numb and distracted when I was calling out?

I was calling out...

G I

On a Sunday morning the whole crowd assembled,

Em
I ve done some things that I m not too proud of...

G D
I ve never left you, a deaf ear for longing.

C G
Some hearts are gallows, I m not here for hangin around.

It s all right, man.

I m only bleeding, man.

Em
Stay hungry, stay free,

Em
And do the best you can.
