

Wooderson

The Gaslight Anthem

[Intro]

F#m D A E x2

[Verse 1]

A E
And tonight the coastline is quiet, it's quieter than it's ever been

F#m D
Honey, this town is a prison, with its four walls closing in

A E
And they got one pill to make you smaller, they got one pill to make you scream

F#m D
Darling, this heart is on fire, and this life is but a dream

F#m D A E
Alright, alright

F#m D A E
Alright, alright

[Verse 2]

A E
You see this town pulls my heartstrings, I fell in love with the Shrewsbury stars

F#m D
But there's far too many diamonds, in the back seats of borrowed cars

A E
And I could never stop this burning, honey I can tell no lie

F#m D
I could never stand the weather darling, this heart is on fire

F#m D A E
Alright, alright

F#m D A E
Alright, alright

[Bridge]

F#m D
Tonight, tonight

A E
We're gonna ride like silver on a desolation moonlight

F#m D
Tonight, tonight

A E
Ain't coming back until the morning light

F#m D
Tonight, tonight

A E
It's alright, alright

F#m D A E
Tonight tonight

F#m D A E

F#m D A E

Alright, alright

(F#m)

Alright, alright

[Outro]

F#m D A E

Dancing by moonlight, my old friend the twilight

F#m D A E

Dancing by moonlight, my old friend the twilight

F#m D A E

Dancing by moonlight, my old friend the twilight

F#m D A E

Dancing by moonlight, my old friend
