VERSE 1

E C
Youâ€™ll be accepting my apology

G C
For taking things too seriously.

G A
Sometimes Iâ€™m old enough to keep routines,

B* C*
Sometimes Iâ€™m child enough to scream

E C
For everything. I broke in two.

G
Youâ€™re barely missing me.

C
Iâ€™m missing you

G
And everything you do.

A B* C*
I really do. I really do. Sure I do.

PRE CHORUS

B C
My once photographic memory,

G Em C
For recollectionsâ€™s sake is failing me.

I canâ€™t remember for the life of me.

CHORUS

G B
Sometimes I can think to recite

Em C
Words that I read and rewrite.

B C
My pens paint people that Iâ€™ve proven wrong.

G B

Sometimes I can think to recite

Em C

Words that I read and rewrite.

B C

My pens paint people that Iâ€™ve proven wrong,

Em C

We move on.

VERSE 2

E C

Get a job where I tell

G C

All of my accounts of someone else.

G A

Iâ€™m quick enough to judge that they were wrong

B* C

And that we knew it all along.

E C

Sing a long long-winded song.

G C B C

I would be content to hum along. Hummm

BRIDGE

G C

If I state that my fingers know where to show

Em

What everyone should have known,

G

Iâ€™ll let it go.

C

Hopefully youâ€™ll forget

Em

Any words that I put in print.

C

My luck, youâ€™ll change

C

Have strength enough to walk away.

CHORUS x2

[END: G

read and rewrite it wrong]
