Capo on 1

Thereâ€™s a story I once read and itâ€™s been bugging in my head About this creepy little dancer called Sophie Sheâ€™s so pretty, sheâ€™s so small but sheâ€™s tired of it all She just wanna close the door and go sleep

You see this little creepy girl, she has some trouble making friends, she canâ€™t seem to comprehend what lifeâ€™s about So sheâ€™s saying creepy stuff like, being happy is a bluff Sheâ€™s only ten years old but still sheâ€™s had enough

Oh this little creepy girl
She is stuck in this world

She grew up just like me
Oh this little creepy girl
It turned out she was me

And theyâ€™ve been teaching me to talk
How to smile and how to walk
But Iâ€™m still creepy little me

Spoken words that have been said spin around like a circus in my head Iâ€™m still living in a dream
Oh Iâ€™m still Creepy Little Me

And in this creepy little story thereâ€™s another girl called â€œAnaâ€• Sheâ€™s living in Sophieâ€™s creepy head Sheâ€™s screaming words that no one hears Until Sophieâ€™s skeleton appears Running hours every day to hide her tears

And now weâ€™ve come to the middle of this story thereâ€™s a boy

Saying creepy little things to Sophie Oh they became best friends
He used to sing her to sleep
It turned out he was a creep
He was a creep

Hereâ€™s the beginning of the end
So did she finally get a friend, this creepy little dancer called Sophie

Em / Am / B / Em

Oh no she gave herself away
Only her soul still remains She disappeared, but still grew up and became me
