

Im Hidden So Well
The Glass Child

F#m

Iâ€™ve kept my mouth shut

C#m

when I feel them around

D

Kept them in a distance

So they can see me

A

but not whatâ€™s on my mind

F#m / C#m / D / A

Iâ€™m convinced that they make fun of me

Iâ€™ve been told that noone knows me at all

Why should I bother?

Iâ€™m doing just fine behind my wall

Donâ€™t come closer

F#m C#m

Unloved unhurt, right?

E / B

C#m / A / E / B

Try waking up alone in your bed

So much space you feel trapped instead

Try live with yourself behind closed doors

Thereâ€™s no such thing as safe alone

Oh God I feel so unknown

Iâ€™m hidden so well

F#m / C#m / D / A

Oh no I stumbled into his bedroom again

those thoughts are killing me in my sleep, and yes I am drunk again

You say I donâ€™t let anybody get close to me?

and that I canâ€™t be reached well, here I am baby

I can be available

I can be useful too

Donâ€™t come closer

F#m C#m

Unloved unhurt, right?

E / B

C#m / A / E / B

You should try waking up in a stranger's bed
You have company but feel more lonely instead Try spend a night with someone you've never met deeper breath but not a word is said
Oh God I feel so unknown
I'm hidden so well

C#m / A / E / B

Don't walk too proud Don't speak too loud cause someone might hear you

F#m / A / C#m / B

you've got to be careful nowadays there's always someone waiting for you to screw up

F#m / A / E / B

They want to hurt you when you're broken make fun of every you've spoken make you think that you're in love and then they'll leave you heartbroken

F#m / A / E / B

so don't break my brick walls not yet forget me

Chorus
