The Go-Betweens

Spirit

I ve got tickets, to the best show in town,
If you wanna come on down and listen
I m ready, and I might come along
With something that you ve been missing
I ve got no money, I ve got nothing at all, but I ll keep you guessing
And I m bound to hit the wall, and I ll be running

I m no trouble, nothing like the trouble
That I used to be when I was somebody s double
Do you have any whiskey, don t like to drink
But I like to know that it s along there with me
And there s nothing I ve seen, that s ever really flattened me
And there s something, in the corner of your eye that gets me
Yes there s something, but I know you ll keep me guessing
You ll keep me guessing

So what do you say, tell me what you re thinking of Tell me what you re thinking of, this minute?

You re a spirit
You re one thing greater, than all the things that you are together
You re one thing greater, than all the things that you are together
You re one thing greater, than all the things, you are together

Outro: C D C G C D C G C D C G

Note: If you're a novice and you're looking to introduce the country feel which this song has, when you change up from G to C, pick the open D string then hammer down on the E note (2nd Fret) followed by the C chord (-#61514;)
