The Good Life

Am C F
I hate it when you say you need me.
G
You don t need me.
C Am F
I hate even worse that I need you.
G
It kills me.
F G C Am
When I was young I loved to be by myself, all alone.
F G Am C
Now that I m older I m scared of myself, all alone.
F G C
So lay with me, my love.
Am C F
I hate when you say you know me.
G
You don t know me.
C Am F
What I hate even worse is I know you.
G
You re no mystery.
F G C Am
You refuse to acknowledge how much you can t stand who I am.
F G Am C
I ve been trying to tell you that I m a terror of a man.
F G
I hate it when you call
C Am
... so lonesome after the bar.
F G C
I know I should hang up the phone, but I never do.
