F# (hammer on 2nd fret)

Oh, it didn't last

One night I was drinking alone

So I drove out to Denver

To visit an old friend

Who had settled down there

I kept on driving all through the night

And threw up in dawn's early light

Sick on caffeine pills

My friend, he escaped from Omaha

Oh, I never will

Oh, I had a lover once

She was a nomad

Would have followed her anywhere

So we moved out to Portland

She was selling baggage

I bought all I could

And that was all it took

To make my escape

Oh, Omaha, oh, you never looked so good

I am leaving

I m sailing away

My time in Iowa

Was just a holiday

I ve got to get back over that bridge

To the town where I live

I guess that s where I ll stay

Oh, Omaha, oh, Omaha
