

Nineteen Seventeen

The Good, The Bad & The Queen

[Intro]

F Em F Em

[Verse 1]

F

I see myself moving backwards

Em

In time today

F

From a place we can't remain

G

Close to anymore

Dm

My heart is heavy

Dm

Because it looks just like my home

Em

Pylons, rapeseed fields

Am

Powdered skies and trees alone

F

G#

Thousands of white crosses in a cemetery

F

I freeze the frame from a passing train

[Verse 2]

C

Are you still there or am I losing you?

F

And every moment lost

G

Is telling to my heart

Dm

Puts me on the form

Dm

For silent treatment from the forces above

Em

Am

Our dependence on new gods

F

Because I'm just passing through

G#

On this battlefield

F

Where we played our games

F

And went insane

[Verse 3]

F

And we waltzed around the world

Em

As though we were off our heads

F

And I say why

G

Why are we not brought to book?

Dm

And where are we today?

Dm

Dissolution

Em

Our lousy love affairs

Am

If you don't love me let me go

F

And as I come up again

G#

I leave a little bit of England

F

In a field in France

[Outro]
