The color-coded town,

Am

They had one rule no grays allowed,

Dm7

It was a great offense,

G7

It brought no compliments,

C

A stranger to the town he came,

Am

And met a girl that very few would say,

Dm7

Is worth thinking of,

G7

Still he fell in love,

C

E7

Am7

And he brought her flowers every day,

Dm7

And she loved them,

G7

She loved him she d never felt that way,

C

E7

Am7 C7

But they said hey those flowers they are gray,

Dm7

They can t stay no, no, well, well,

G7

C

We ll let it slide, but read our signs we don t like grays, ï»¿

C

Then one day they saw her in a dress,

Am

A gift from him it was gray and red,

Dm7

It stopped them in their tracks,

G7

Ooo, they knew it matched,

ï»¿

C

A revolution there was shortly found,

Am

Inside that color-coded town,

Dm7

Same happy, some enraged,

G7

So they marched on over to the place where,

i>¿

C

E7

Am7

He brought her flowers every day,

Dm7

And she loved them,

G7

She loved him she d never felt that way,

C

E7

Am7 C7

But they cried let s take him to his grave,

Dm7

He can t stay no, no, well, well,

G7

We ve done told him once, but now he s done,

i>¿

Am7

C7

They cried, We told you stay away,

From that crazy color,

Dm7

Turn around if you don t we ll break you,

G7

And you don t have anyone to save you,

i>¿

Am7

C7

He said, She needs me to stay,

Cuz gray can take her sorrow,

Dm7

So I will die tonight so she will know,

G7

That gray will stay in the color-code, yeah

i>¿

Dm7

For my love I will die you know,

G7

But before I do let the record show,

i>¿C

E7

Am7

That I brought her flowers every day,

Dm7

And she loved them,

G7

She loved me she d never felt that way,

C

E7

Am7 C7

So if you feel you need some gray,

Dm7

That s ok child, cuz you know you ve just got to ask,

G7

And I ll come back,

i»ç

Dm7

You know you ve just got to ask,

G7

And I ll come back, oh

Dm7

You know you ve just got to ask,

G7

C

And I ll come back to give you grace
