The Head and the Heart

[Intro]

E

[Verse]

E

Well the ink in my pen ran dry long before your smile

E

And the pages have always been blank like the trees in the wild

[Chorus]

E

But the wind, yes, the wind

A

E

Keeps pushing you and me

E

Time in time

B

I know when it's time to leave

A

And the memories we make

E

Will never be lost, no

A

And the look on your face

B

We both knew the cost

B

But the wind, yes, the wind keeps howling

E A E

E

I put in the pictures, you put in the time

E

You put all those memories so deep inside my mind

[Chorus]

E A x4

Even if it was a mistake
