

Untitled

The Head and the Heart

D A E
It s getting harder these days

D A E
To keep my cool

D A E
Don t get me wrong

D A E
I was never great

CHORUS:

F#m E
But I remember days when money didn t matter

F#m E
I was building forts and swamps in the summers
D

And you were serving tea to the queen
A E A A

And everything was beautiful
A E A A
Yeah we d run around like animals

E
And I, I, I, I heard you say

D A E
It s getting harder these days

D A E
It s getting harder these days

A
We ran around into the night

D F#m E
Chasing trains like crazies out of our minds

A
With no more to lose than our Sunday shoes

D F#m E
We packed our bags and said goodbye
F#m E

We were not afraid, we were not afraid

CHORUS:

F#m E
But I remember days when money didn t matter

F#m E
I was building forts and swamps in the summers
D

And you were serving tea to the queen
A E A A

And everything was beautiful

A

E A A

Yeah we d run around like animals

E

And I, I, I, I heard you say

A

D

Look outside the sun is rising

F#m

Every cloud in the sky is gone

E

Gone (x2)

A

We ran around into the night

D

F#m

E

Chasing trains like crazies out of our minds

A

With no more to lose than our Sunday shoes

D

F#m

E

We packed our bags and said goodbye

A

D

You said look outside the sun is rising

F#m

E

Look outside the sun is rising (x2)

D

A

D A

And you were serving tea to the que-en