One More Time

F#

Hey now draw yourself more near to me

G#m

C#

Rest your weary mind bend your will to the light

F#

Lay down all those things you fear to be

G#m

C#

What you may become truth for everyone

I won t wait for you to run down that hall with anyone

C#

Rest yourself easy begging hey now please...

(The same for the rest).

I know things you left and said undone
are heavy on your heart true for everyone

I won t wait for you to go down that narrow corridor
Rest yourself easy hey now begging please

So now, draw yourself more near to me
rest your weary mind
bend your will just one more time...

Just one more time...
