

All My Friends Are Gonna Be Strangers
The Highwaymen

(C) Oh the love you promised would be mine
(F) forever. I (C) would have bet my bottom dollar (G7) on. Well it (C) sure turned out to be a short (F) forever. Just (C) once I turned by (G7) back and you were (C) gone.

CHORUS: (C) From now on all my friends are gonna be (F) strangers. I m all (C) through ever trusting (G7) anyone. The only (C) thing I can count on now is (F) my fingers. I was a (C) fool believing in (G7) you and now you are (C) gone.

(C) It amazes me not knowing any (F) better.
Than to (C) think I had a love that would be (G7) true. Well I (C) should be taken out and tarred and (F) feathered. To (C) have let myself be (G7) taken in by (C) you.

LAST: (C) I was a fool believing in (G7) you and now you are (C) gone.
