

The Weekenders
The Hold Steady

First time putting up chords, feel free to edit

Verse 1: *I like to use muted downstrokes

Em7                      Cadd9                      G                      Em7
There was that whole weird thing with the horses
Cadd9                      G
I think they know exactly what happened, I don t think it needs any
Em7
explaining
Cadd9                      G                      Em7
I m pretty sure I wasn t your first choice
Cadd9                      G                      Em7
I think I was the last one remaining
Cadd9                      G
I wish we hadn t gone and destroyed it
Em7
Cause I was thinking we could pull another weekender
Cadd9                      G
You ve still got a little bit of clairvoyance

Pre-Chorus:

B                      D
I remember the metal bar
A                      G
I remember the reservoir
Em7                      Cadd9                      D
You could say our paths had crossed before

Chorus:

Em7                      Cadd9
So if it has to be a secret, then I guess that I can deal with it
G
You and I both know it s a negative thing
Em7                      Cadd9                      G
In the end only the girls know the whole truth

Verse 3

Repeat Pre-Chorus

Repeat Chorus

Go to Chorus B:

Em7                      Cadd9

And if you swear to keep it decent, then yeah, I ll come and see you

G

But it s not gonna be like in romantic comedies

Em7

Cadd9

G

In the end I bet no one learns a lesson

Chorus

Chorus B
