

Too young to be married
The Hollies

D Em7 D Em7 D Em7 D Em7
She wakes up early every morning,
D Em7 D Em7 D Em7 D Em7
she gets up long before the sunshine,
D Em7 D Em7 D Em7 D Em7
greet the milkman who's still yawning
D Em7 D Em7 D Em7 D Em7
and reads the paper for a short time.
A D Em7 D Em7
Calls the kids Get out of bed ,
A D Em7 D
they never hear a word she says.

D Em7 D Em7 D Em7 D
Husband stands to leave the table,
Em7 D Em7 D Em7 D
she says I hope you have a good day.
Em7 D Em7 D Em7 D
he thinks One day soon as I'm able,
Em7 D Em7 D Em7 D Em7
I'll get a job where I get good pay.
A D Em7 D Em7
They find it hard to make ends meet.
A Bm
But they don't mention it, because they have each other G A
and love is free, while they're supposed to be

D G D G D G A
too young to be married, too young to be free, D G D G
too young to be married, but what can they do: G D A
they were gonna have a baby.

SOLO

Bm Em F# G A
D A G A
F G A
F G A

D Em7 D Em7 D Em7 D Em7
After the kids have had their breakfast
D Em7 D Em7 D Em7 D Em7
now they're off to get some schoolin
D Em7 D Em7 D Em7 D Em7

she cleans the house and makes the beds

D Em7 D Em7 D Em7 D Em7

she starts to dream but knows she s foolin

A D Em7 D

she swears one day she ll stay in bed,

A Bm

but for now she knows she s got to keep on working,

G

A

cause round and round inside her head she hears the words her mother said:

D G D G D G A

Too young to be married, too young to be free,

D G D G

too young to be married, but what could they do:

G D A

they were gonna have a baby.

D G D G D G A

Too young to be married, too young to be free,

D G D Gmaj7 C D C

too young to be married, but what could they do?