G

Yesterday s dinner s haunting me today

C

Blades in my stomach spinning

G

I awake with a fear of intake

C

Heightened by the stress of your love

Am

I won t return your calls until it lets up

C

Oh, just one more season, you will be good

G

Tonight, oh

C

Don t even, don t even try, oh

G

When I m concentratin on makin statements

C

That will fool you into thinkin we re fine

G

Yeah, They ll fool you, fool you, fool you, into thinkin we re fine

Am

Until you start to feel something outside

C

Beyond what you alone can visualise

G

Not worth the misery

Our sorted history

Am

Years of revelry

We d converse endlessly

C

Those pouted lips that say you d cry

D

Won t you start to feel something outside

Tonight, oh

Don t even, don t even try

G

The libido was mistaken

For an earnest, heartfelt evening

C

For a moon-induced hallucination

G

Couldn t help but notice

C

Your eyes are losing focus

Such magnetism, now you re repulsed

Am

But if you re not begging for it

Then it s not yours

C

Once dependent, now no signs of withdrawal

G

Not worth the misery

Our sorted history

Am

Years of revelry

We d converse endlessly

C

Those pouted lips that say you d cry

D

Won t you start to feel something outside

G

Tonight, oh

C

Don t even, don t even, don t

G

Am

Please talk softly now

C

D

No need to scream

G

Am

C

D

The raise in decibels seems obsence

G

Am

Please talk softly now

C

D

No need to scream

G

Am

C

The raise in decibels seems obsence
