Verse 1:

C7	C	D	C7	C	D	G	A
b-10---	12--7-		---10---	12--7-		---3---	5-----
e-12---	10--5-		---12---	10--5-		---3---	5-----
g-12---	12--7-		---12---	12--7-		---4---	6-----
E-----			-----			-----
A-----			-----			-----
D-----			-----			-----

It doesn't seem that selfish.
No not in the least.
What so self righteous about this curiosity.

Just one full meager exchange,
so much time has passed but still it remains,
this need for you is a re-occurring theme in my life

Verse 2:

	D		G
Don't you think I'm lonely,		eager to complete the story.
	Em	A	G	A
Confused and so haunted,		with why you'd start over,		and ignore me.
	D	G	Em	A
It takes time to realize the other side of you that's controlling,
D	G	Em

blind in hindsight of our lives.

Verse 1:

Even if you left me and my brother
Even if you left us and a mother
Want nothing more than to catch your eye.
Would you be impressed with how far I've climbed.

Without your assistance with you nowhere in sight.

Verse 2:

Don't you think I'm lonely, eager to complete the story.
Confused and so haunted, with why you'd start over, and ignore me.
It takes time to realize the other side of you that's controlling,
blind in hindsight of our lives.

Even if you left me and my brother
Even if you left us and a mother

Verse 3:

She has had her share, more than we'll know,
My brother won't he just won't let go,
they say you're sick and there is a name and a phrase,
to apply and help explain,
still having trouble trying to separate how you started a new family.

Outro:

Even after you left me and my brother even after you left us and a mother.
