Bb Gm

Remember everything we had

Bb

Every breath of this house creaking

Gm

Bb

I m familiar with the cold and the windows and the doors

Gm

And the sound of my heart beating

Eb

F

Beating in and out of time

Bb

And it s such a shame

Gm

I heard the wind say this morning

Bb

Be still my heart

Gm

I age by years at the mention of your name

Bb

What a pity this season

Gm

You remember me, my lover

Bb

I don t recognize myself

I m not the man you love

Gm

Behold the hurricane

Bb

Behold the hurricane

Bb Gm x2

Bb

I walk around these empty rooms

Gm

We once moved like the morning

Bb

Silhouettes they haunt this house

Like a memory haunts me now

Gm

As if it were a dream

Eb

F

As if it were a dream

Bb

And it s such a shame

Gm

I heard the wind say this morning

Bb

Be still my heart

Gm

I age by years at the mention of your name

Bb

What a pity this season

Gm

You remember me, my lover

Bb

I don t recognize myself

I m not the man you love

Gm

Behold the hurricane

Bb

Behold the hurricane

Bb

Dm

Gm

Eb

I heard the moon has visions of her nightly

Dm

Gm

Eb

I heard the mighty rivers cry out her name

Gm

Eb

I saw the heaven and the earth

Gm

Eb

I saw the heaven and the earth

cry over you

Bb

And it s such a shame
