

Mirrors Image The Horrors

I know this is very very rough but I just worked it out quickly by ear.

It basically follows the bass, I just wanted to be able to play it acoustically so obviously it doesn't sound as good as it would with all the different harmonies the Horrors use!

Am Dm Cm Bm

Am Dm
Is it her way
 Cm Bm
Is it the way she looks at you
 Am Dm
Seeing her face

As you walk through
 Cm Bm
The crowded avenue
 Am Dm
That Sets you afire
 Cm Bm
Remembering all you left behind
 Am Dm
Don't fall back in line
 Cm Bm
Better You let her memory die

Am Bm

 Cm
Draw strength
 Bm Am
Walk on into the night
 Bm
Better you try
 Cm
To pass her by
 Bm Am
Walk on into the night

and the chords fit the same for the 2nd verse and chorus.

Any feedback would be appreciated!
