

Mirrors Image The Horrors

I know this is very very rough but I just worked it out quickly by ear.

It basically follows the bass, I just wanted to be able to play it acoustically so obviously it doesn't sound as good as it would with all the different harmonies the Horrors use!

Am Dm Cm Bm

Am Dm
Is it her way
Cm Bm
Is it the way she looks at you
Am Dm
Seeing her face

As you walk through
Cm Bm
The crowded avenue
Am Dm
That sets you afire
Cm Bm
Remembering all you left behind
Am Dm
Don't fall back in line
Cm Bm
Better you let her memory die

Am Bm

Cm
Draw strength
Bm Am
Walk on into the night
Bm
Better you try
Cm
To pass her by
Bm Am
Walk on into the night

and the chords fit the same for the 2nd verse and chorus.

Any feedback would be appreciated!
