

Mirrors Image The Horrors

I know this is very very rough but I just worked it out quickly by ear.

It basically follows the bass, I just wanted to be able to play it acoustically so obviously it doesn't sound as good as it would with all the different harmonies the Horrors use!

Bm Em Dm C#m

Bm Em
Is it her way
Dm C#m
Is it the way she looks at you
Bm Em
Seeing her face

As you walk through
Dm C#m
The crowded avenue
Bm Em
That sets you afire
Dm C#m
Remembering all you left behind
Bm Em
Don't fall back in line
Dm C#m
Better you let her memory die

Bm C#m

Dm
Draw strength
C#m Bm
Walk on into the night
C#m
Better you try
Dm
To pass her by
C#m Bm
Walk on into the night

and the chords fit the same for the 2nd verse and chorus.

Any feedback would be appreciated!
