

There Is Always Something There To Remind Me
The Housemartins

Song: There Is Always Something There To Remind Me

Artist: The Housemartins

Album: Now That s What I Call Quite Good (1988)

Tabbed By: Alex Blackburne

Intro

G F / G F / G F / C

Verse

G F
The teachers name was Charles

G F
He made me feel like Jack

G F
Thought Martin was late

C
Cause he sat right at the back

G F
Thought my name was Peter

G F
The time that I was there

G F
I told him it was Paul

C
But he didnt seem to care

G F / G F / G F / C

Pre-Chorus

Bm C
Drawing moustaches and glasses

Bm C
While on the ruling classes

C Bm
Drawing willies on soldiers

C Bm
From Berlin to Damascus

G F / C

Chorus

G
It shouts out loud

F G
I m more than you

F G

I m more than you

F / C

G

It shouts out loud

F G

I m more than you

F G

I m more than you

F / C

Verse

G F

Making bombs in chemistry,

G F

And catapults in craft,

G F

He thought I must be far too

C

Down, for this class

G F

He even told the caretaker,

G F

I didnt want to pass,

G F

And he agreed he d seen me,

C

Cutting cross his grass

G F / G F / G F / C

Pre-Chorus

Bm C

Would he keep all the marbles,

Bm C

He d taken in that year,

C Bm

Would we stormtroop the staffroom,

C Bm

And pinch his cans of beer?

G F / C

Chorus

G

It shouts out loud

F G

I m more than you

F G

I m more than you

F / C

G
It shouts out loud
F G
I m more than you
F G
I m more than you

F / C

Bridge

G Bm C
There is always something there to remind me,
 G Bm C
Of something that I should ve left behind me,
C Bm
It taps you on the shoulder in a que,
C Bm
It shouts across the street, I ve more than you,
 G Bm C
There is always something there to remind me,
 G G G G / Bm Bm Bm Bm / C
Of you.

Chorus

G
It shouts out loud
F G
I m more than you
F G
I m more than you

F / C

G
It shouts out loud
F G
I m more than you
F G
I m more than you

F / C

G
It shouts out loud