Tuning:

Gm Eb
In the backseat of a car, in the corner of a room,
Gm Eb
In the shadows where I hide from you
Gm D F
Do the hospital bed crawl, do the terminal yell
C
And the violently alone I feel

Eb F
Well hey, you re the only thing I wouldn t change
Bb F Gm
In this place, it s strange to say
Eb F Gm
You re the only angel I ever gave away.

Gm Eb
In an alleyway way downtown, there s a lurker making rounds
Gm Eb
Keeping track and keeping tabs on you.
Gm D F
And he likes the taste of blood, and he loves the way you love
C
And that s just what he wants from you

Eb F
Well hey, you re the only thing I wouldn t change
Bb F Gm
In this place, it s strange to say

You re the only angel I ever gave away.
