

Lighthouse

The Hush Sound

This is my first tab EVER. So please, do not go crazy if you don't like it. I chose to lighthouse because it's a piano song and no one can make fun of you for trying when it's the same instrument. I also did not like the other tab, it didn't sound good to me; so I with some chords and found out that it has the tune of Lighthouse, and here we are. I play this it sounds correct, although you can always have a different opinion. =]
