

Thats Okay

The Hush Sound

Intro: C - G - F

C                    G                    F
You were a child who was made of glass
C                    G                    F
You carried a black heart passed down from your dad
Em                  Am                  G
If somebody loved you, they d tell you by now
Em                  Am7                  F
We all turn away when you re down

C                    G                    F
You want to go back to where you felt safe
C                    G                    F
To hear your brother s laughter, see your mother s face
Em                  Am                  G
But your childhood home is just powder-white bones
Em                  Am7                  F
You ll never find your way back

E7                  Am                  G                  E7
When you re gone, will they say your name?
Am                  G                  E7
When you re gone, will they love you the same?
C                  G                  F
If not, that s okay.
C                  G                  F
If not, that s okay.

C                    G                    F
You are broken and callow, cautious and safe
C                    G                    F
You are boundless in beauty, with fright in your face
Em                  Am                  G
Until someone loves you, I ll keep you safe
Em                  Am7                  F
But like them, I will give you away

E7                  Am                  G                  E7
When you re gone, will they say your name?
Am                  G                  E7
When you re gone, will they love you the same?
C                  G                  F
If not, that s okay.

C - G - F

Em - Am - G

Em - Am - F

E7                    Am                    G                    E7
When you re gone, will they say your name?

Am                    G                    E7
When you re gone, will they love you the same?

Am                    G                    E7
When you re gone we won t say a word

C                    G                    F
But you know that s okay.

C - G - F    3x