You Are The Moon

G C Em D
Shadows all around you as you surface from the dark,
G C Em D
Emerging from the gentle grip of night s unfolding arms.
G C D G
Darkness, darkness everywhere, Do you feel alone?
G C Em D
The subtle grace of gravity, The heavy weight of stone.

G C Em D
You don t see what you possess, A beauty calm and clear
G C Em D
It floods the sky, And blurs the darkness like a chandelier.
G C D G
All the light that you possess, Is skewed by lakes and seas;
G C Em D
The shattered surface, So imperfect, Is all that you believe.

G C Em D
I will bring a mirror, So silver, so exact,
G C Em D
So precise and so pristine, A perfect pane of glass.
G C D G
I will set the mirror up, To face the blackened sky.
G C Em D
You will see your beauty every moment that you rise.
