 C F C Dm G
When the sun goes down o'er Dublin town, the colors last for hours, oh
 C F C G C
The lights come on, the night's a song and the streets all turn to gold.
 C F C Dm G
A gentle mist all heaven kissed, like teardrops off an angel's wing
 C F C G C
Don't you know you'll cleanse your soul with a walk in the Irish rain.

 C Dm C G
Oh, Katherine, take my hand, I've got three pounds and change
 C Dm C F
And I'll sing you songs of love again and when I get too drunk to sing
 C G C
We'll walk in the Irish rain.

Forever more I've stepped ashore, my sailing days are over, oh
Through time and tide and by your side together we'll grow old.
I threw my sea bag in the bin and brought these pretty flowers home
Kiss me Kate, we'll celebrate before the bloom is gone.

 C Dm C G
Oh, Katherine, take my hand, I've got three pounds and change
 C Dm C F
And I'll sing you songs of love again and when I get too drunk to sing
 C G C
We'll walk in the Irish rain.

(A capella)
A tinker and a tailor and a drunken old sailor
They all get together and they start to play
Time stands still while they sing their fill
They'll shout 'til the break of day.

A sweet little lady with a glass of stout

Sippin it down til the foam runs out

She ll help her old man home again with a walk in the Irish rain.

Oh, Katherine, take my hand, I ve got three pounds and change

And I ll sing you songs of love again and when I get too drunk to sing

We ll walk in the Irish rain.
