Am F Em Am
Am F Em Am
Am F Em Am
Am F Em Am
Am F Em Am

[Verse 1]

Am
Well, I remember living
F Em Am
On the western coast of France
F Em Am
Only seventeen when the girl first took my heart
Am
And though Iâ€™ve seen the rivers
F Em Am
They never looked as good as you
Am
And though Iâ€™ve seen the rivers
F Em Am
They never looked as good as you

[Verse 2]

Am
Sometimes the lantern shines down
F Em Am
Sometimes they show your face
Am
Sometimes I have to close off
F Em Am
Anything just to save a trace
Am
And though Iâ€™ve seen the rivers
F Em Am
They never looked as good as you
Am
And though Iâ€™ve seen the rivers
F Em Am
All they ever do is remind me of you

[Instrumental]

Am F Em Am
Am F Em Am
Am F Em Am

[Verse 3]

Am

Oh, Well I couldâ€™ve loved you

F

Em

Am

You know I once believed in you

Am

Oh, you know I could have loved you

F

Em

Am

Every word I said must be true

Am

But though Iâ€™ve seen the rivers

F

Em

Am

They never looked as good as you

Am

And though Iâ€™ve seen the rivers

F

Em

Am

They only remind me of you
