

Garands at Normandie
The Jakes

(intro) D A E Bm A E Bm A

E

Go bright light!

Bm

Scour the forest through the night

A

Searching for a

E

Bm

sign of life Memories of fears and strife

A

Keep his legs from

E

Bm

Turning blue Broken bones and muddy shoes

A

Running through the

E

Bm

fields I knew Join the ranks of the favored few

A

what have

E

I become

Bm

A

Won't you save me Before the day

E

is done

Bm

A

E

Won't you save me, now that we have won

E

Got what's left Lost my rights when

Bm

A

I was young Taken by the

E

Bm

ones I trust Long before I knew of love

A

All the things

E

Bm

I Understood Fighting for the greater good

A

Now tell me why this

E

Bm

feels so wrong, feels so wrong to hold this gun

A

Now look what I've

E

become?
