

Disguises

The Jam

heliocentric@breathe.com

4th March 2001, 15.44pm

DISGUISES by THE JAM

Written by Pete Townshend

B-side to Funeral Pyre (Polydor, 1981)

E (w/echo effect - play once every bar)

on the fifth time E is played
this little riff comes in:

Riff 1:

E

```

-0-0-0-0-----|
-----4--2--0-----|
-----| (x4)
-----|
-----|

```

E

I used to know everything about you

But today when I tried to point you out

F#

To one of my friends

B

I d picked the wrong girl again

F#

Don t see you in the crowd anymore

B

I think it s you but I can t be sure

E (w/riff 1 x2)

You re wearing disguises

F#

Occasionally a girl surprises me

B

D

When she turns out to be you.

E (w/riff 1 x4)

Wearing disguises.

E

I don t think you want me to see you ever again

F#

Just today I saw you dressed as a flower-bed

B

Last week you had a wig on your head

F#

Mis-directing traffic in the street

B

And your shoes were too big for your feet

E (w/riff 1 x2)

You re wearing disguises

F#

Occasionally a girl surprises me

B

D

When she turns out to be you.

E (w/riff 1 x4)

Wearing disguises.

F# (tacet) (instrumental)

E (w/riff 1 x4)

F#

I used to know everything about you

But today when I tried to point you out

G#

To one of my friends

C#

I d picked the wrong girl again

G#

Don t see you in the crowd anymore

C#

I think it s you but I can t be sure

F#

You re wearing disguises

G#

Occasionally a girl surprises me

C#

E

When she turns out to be you.

F#

E

Wearing disguises.

F#

E

You re wearing disguises

F#

E

Wearing disguises

F#

E

Wearing disguises

F#

E

You re wearing disguises

F#

E

Wearing disguises

F#

E

Wearing disguises

F# E

Wearing disguises

F# E (x3)

F#

(drums til fade)