Verse 1

A C#m D Dsus
Billy was a vampire carving out an empire
A C#m D E
strolling pirates alley in the middle of the night
A C#m D Dsus
buy a round of cocktails spinning sordid fables in the
A C#m D E
twilight... that s alright
A C#m D Dsus
scattered words... matter it s a disaster in the
A C#m D E
making... Umm Hmm
A C#m D Dsus
take the time to smell the leaves beneath the
A C#m D E
trees... that?s alright

Chorus

F#m G
my whole life has gone haywire
F#m E
I m just a blade bending in your shade
F#m G
for your love I m A vampire
D E E
standing in the ways of the esplanade

Verse 2

A C#m D Dsus
I headed up to Pittsburgh heard you could get a pretty good
A C#m D E
sandwich... for fifteen and a dime

A C#m D Dsus
 I miss that oooold stretch of road down to the
A C#m D E
 bayou... in the middle of the night
A C#m D Dsus
 guilt by association the meer smell of speculation
A C#m D E
 conjours up hell... thats allright
A C#m D Dsus
 feel the touch of oil from the tankers upon
A C#m D E
 the breeze ya... that s allright

Chorus

F#m G
 my whole life has gone haywire...
F#m E
 I m just a blade bending in your shade
F#m G
 for your love I m A vampire...
D E E
 standing in the ways of the esplanade...

Solo

Verse 3

A C#m D Dsus
 that s my whole life in a nutshell take it as you
A C#m D E
 will...
A C#m D Dsus
 I hear that old brass band playing our song down the
A C#m D E
 hill... that s allright wont you
A C#m D Dsus
 smile... smile... smile Mmm...
A C#m D E
 that s allright wont you
A C#m D Dsus
 smile.... smile... smile... Mmm...
A C#m D E
 that s allright wont you...
