The Juliana Theory - Into the dark

jeh, guys there are not many tabs of this one,
so i gave it a try...well, honestly i used a tab made by Jonathan McDonald for my version, to see his version look at www.geocities.com/snakeeyes3777.
though i think his version isn't 100% correct
it helped me alot doing this one, so thanks for that.
i guess they play it 1-step downtuned but i'm too lazy for that so i made a version with capo on 3.
~ Flojo

capo3 --> normal(DGCFAd)
bm --> em
D --> G
G --> C
A --> D
f#m --> g#m

(capo*3-version)

Bm                    D                    G                    A
Dad, your boy s about to fall. He walks the razor s edge.
Bm                    D                    G                    A
He s on the brink of fading out. He s at his bitter end.
Bm                    D                    G                    A
Dad, your boy who used to run, you taught him how to crawl.
He left home to find his own, now all he had is gone.

##Chorus##:

G                    D                    A
In your eyes I see a darkness that torments you
Bm                    G
And in your head where it dwells.
G                    D                    A
I'd give you my hand if you'd reach out and grab it.
Bm                    G
Let s walk away from this hell.

[same chords as verse above]
Mom, your baby is on his way.
He'll soon be at your side.
Cause he's forgotten all he's known.
A part of him has died.

Mom may never understand why baby s come and gone.
He left home to find his own, now all he has are lies.

##Chorus##

##Bridge##:

the part in {}-brackets play one fast downstroke/chord)
