The Killers

The Killers - From Here On Out from their new album Battle Born

capo on 2nd

Intro- A,D,E,A x2

A D
A little birdie whispered in my ear
E A
You ve been cooking up a world of fear
A D
Put your hands in things you shouldn t have known
E A
You was riding in the danger zone

F#m D
Well you had us all fooled with your quarterback smile
F#m E
And your crocodile tears there for a while
F#m D
And my paradigm shifted, man you re making me shout

A D
Hey, from here from out
E
Friends are gonna be hard to come by
E
Left us wonderin what it all was about
D A
He had it easy, man he chose the hard way
D A E A
Walk that old, lonely road in the shadow of a doubt
E A
From here on out

A D
Should our paths ever decide to cross
E A
You may wonder what the trouble cost
D
That don t matter now, life goes on
E
Hallelujah, the troubles gone

F#m

D

No sense in holding purpose and it s better to forgive

F#m

E

These are things that I must learn, to practice while I live

F#m

D

And my paradigm shifted, man you re making me shout

A

Walk that old, lonely road in the shadow of a doubt

Hey, from here on out

Let the bugle blow a song of peace time

Left us wonderin what it all was about

You may deny it but you carry it with you

Down that old lonely road in the shadow of a doubt

Yeah, from here on out
