The Last Goodbye
The Kills

```
   F#          Bbm     Ebm
It s the last goodbye, I swear
   F#         Bbm      G#m
I can t rely on a dime-a-day love
           C#
That don t go anywhere

   F#         Bbm        Ebm
I learn to cry for someone else
   F#          Bbm      G#m
I can t get by on an odds and ends love
            C#
That don t ever match up

   Bm
I heard all you said
        C#
And I took it to heart

   F#          Bbm     Ebm
I won t forget, I swear
        F#       Bbm
I have no regrets
          G#m
For the past is behind me
C#                          Bm          C#
Tomorrow reminds me just where

( F#    Bbm    Ebm  )
( G#   Eb )

C#     Fm      Bbm
Can t quite see the end
          C#  Fm        Ebm
How can I rely on my heart if I break it
          G#
With my own two hands

   F#m
I heard all you said
       G#
And I love you to death
   F#m
I heard all you said
       G#
Don t say anything
```

        C#          Fm          Bbm
It s the last goodbye, I swear
   C#          Fm          Ebm
I can t survive on a half-hearted love
           G#
That will never be whole
