

Everything Happens For A Reason
The King Blues

A E C#m B
Time dont wait, like the changing of the season.

A E C#m B
Sometimes it makes no sense but it happens for a reason.

A E B
Everything happens for a reason.

A E B
Everything happens for a reason.

Verse 1: E, B, A, B

I was being DJing in a club up in Liverpool,
Busting x ray spex for the kids at grammar school.
She was working there as a dancer,
I thought that perhaps thereâ€™s a chance id romance her.
We arranged to meet in different spots of the country,
Had a good time though we never had no money.
After a couple oâ€™ week with my wide eyed,
We moved to a one bedroom flat by the seaside.

Chorus:

A E C#m B
Time dont wait, like the changing of the season.

A E C#m B
Sometimes it makes no sense but it happens for a reason.

A E B
Everything happens for a reason.

A E B
Everything happens for a reason.

Verse 2: E, B, A, B

We spent every minute that we had together,
I thought that maybe this could be forever.
Then 5 weeks later sheâ€™s always complaining,
About how she feels like sheâ€™s fainting.
So she took herself up to see the doctor,
About 10 minutes before I had to go on tour.
I was stuffing my suitcase with clothes and vaccinations,
I get a text message, congratulations.

Chorus:

A E C#m B
Time dont wait, like the changing of the season.

A E C#m B

Sometimes it makes no sense but it happens for a reason.

A E B
Everything happens for a reason.

A E B
Everything happens for a reason.

Verse 3: E, B, A, B

My mom gave be the best advice I ever had,
She said if your gonna be a dad, just donâ€™t be like your dad.
I had a textbook template of how not to be,
I never thought out the whole crew, the first one would be me.
When I got back home, we went to the hospital,
She was scared and worries that we might of lost it all.
The quack called us into his room where we had a scan,
And I realised for the first time, id become a man.

Chorus (x3)

A E C#m B
Time dont wait, like the changing of the season.

A E C#m B
Sometimes it makes no sense but it happens for a reason.

A E B
Everything happens for a reason.

A E B
Everything happens for a reason.

Outro:

A E B
Everything happens for a reason.

A E B
Everything happens for a reason.
