

Darlin Corey
The Kingston Trio

Kingston Trio version is in Bb. But it s easier to play and sing in C, so that s what I ve chorded.

The authentic version is Bb, Ab, F7.

Rick in Macon

C

There s a pine log shack in the mountains. That s where my Corey dwells

Bb C G7 C

She makes the finest mash liquor. What she doesn t drink she sells

C

Well, the first time I seen darlin Corey she was weavin through the woods

Bb C G7 C

With a kerosene lantern on her shoulder and a satchel full of goods.

C

Please do drop down next Monday. Please bring me a jug or five.

Bb C G7 C

When the sun comes up on Tuesday don t figure to be alive.

C

Don t care if you are livin . Don t care if you are dead.

Bb C G7 C

If you re gonna drink my product then I m gonna take your bread.

C

Well, the last time I seen darlin Corey, she was wanderin through the weeds

C Bb C G7 C

With a government man behind her. Gonna grab her for her deeds.

C

Wake up, wake up, darlin Corey. What makes you sleep so sound?

C Bb C G7 C F C

The revenue officer s a comin , gonna tear your still house down