

Berkeley Mews
The Kinks

F C C7
The leaves of brown came falling through you
C C7 C C7
Berkeley Mews, I first met you
F C C7
I staggered through your chilly dining room
C C7 C C7
Berkeley Mews, I first met you

CHORUS:

Bb
Your kitchen sink was cluttered up
Gm D7
So I couldn't shut it up for longing
Gm
I brewed another cuppa up
G C Bb C Bb
And tried to sneak out early in the morning

I thought you had much better things to do
Berkeley Mews, I first met you
Drowned my conversation with champagne
Berkeley Mews, was not listening

CHORUS #2:

I thought you were an intellect
But now that I reflect, you left me reeling
You made me drink a toast
And when you finished I was looking at the ceiling

F C
The flood of tears I've wept thinking of you
C C7 F
Reminds me of that night in Berkeley Mews

G C7
You know that you left me broken hearted
F E7 Eb7 D7 F Ab F F7
in Berkeley Mews
