Tuning: Standard

Tabbed by: Tim Eggenberger

Hear song for tempo/rhythm

Though provoking tune about homelessness and class disparity.
Sneek this one in around the Campfire.

VERSE

[D]Homeless, cold and [Bm]pennyless [D]Walking, looking for [Bm]work and [D]Looking for Shelter,

It s not easy to [A]do
It s not easy to [D]do
It s not easy to [Bm]do [A]

CHORUS

[G]We built your [D]high walls
[G]with blood from our [D]veins
[G]and you locked [D]Out out to [G]die in your [A]game

VERSE

Dear mom, never meant to casue you pain ever since the war, I ve never been the same
Please forgive me.

What was I to do
What was I to do, ho
What was I to do

CHORUS:

We built your Emprie
With blood from our veins
and you smiled as always, as if your not to blame

CHORUS:

We kept on marching
with bones thru our skin
We killed our brothers and sister, and all we got were these pins.

We built your Emprie
With blood from our veins
and you smiled as always, as if your not to blame

We kept on marching
with bones thru our skin
We killed our brothers and sister, and all we got were these pins.
