

My Mistakes Were Made For You
The Last Shadow Puppets

This is what I've figured after listening the acoustic & album version of the song. The other tabs were close, but a couple chords were off. Comments and corrections welcome :)

Strumming for verses: d-dud-du-ud--udu (listen to it, you'll see what i mean)
Strumming for chorus: d-du d-du d-du

Chords used: Gm, Cm, F, D7, Am, Dm, G, E7

[Intro]

Gm

[Verse 1]

Gm

Cm

About as subtle as an earthquake, I know

F

Gm

my mistakes were made for you

(Gm)

Cm

& in the back room of a bad dream she came

F

Gm

& whisked me away and fused

(Gm)

Gm

& it's as solid as a rock rolling down a hill

Cm

F

the fact is that it probably will hit something

Gm

on the hazardous terrain

(Gm)

Gm

& we're just following the flock round and in between

Cm

F

before we're smashed to smithereens like they were

D7

and we scramble from the blame

[Chorus]

(D7)

Cm

& it's the fame that put words in her mouth

D7

she couldn't help but spit 'em out

Cm

D7

Gm

innocence & arrogance entwined in the filthiest of minds

[Verse 2]

Gm Cm
She was bitten on her birthday and now
F Gm
a face in the crowd she s not

Gm Cm
& I suspect that now forever the shape
F D7
she came to escape is forgot

[Chorus]

(D7) Cm
& it s a lot to ask her not to sting
D7
& give her less than ev rything
Cm D7
around your crooked conscience she will wind

[Bridge]

Gm, Am, Dm, G, Am

(Am) Am
Cos we re just following the flock round & in between Dm G
before we re smashed to smithereens like they were E7
& we scramble from the blame

[Chorus]

(E7) Dm
& it s the fame that put words in her mouth
E7
she couldn t help but spit em out
Dm E7
around your crooked conscience she will wind

Dm
& it s a lot to ask her not to sting
E7
& give her less than everything
Dm
innocence & arrogance entwined.

end on Am
