

Theres No Place Like A Strangers Floor The Lawrence Arms

This is the acoustic version played by brendan kelly.
chords are open.

C G Am F
teeth ripped out of gums hit
C Em Am F
sparkling gray squares of concrete
C G Am F
screams in technicolor pain
C Em Am F
doubled over spitting blood

C
the freezing rain

G
never felt so good

Am
to wake up in some town

F
on some floor to some sound

C Em
voices rattle through my veins

Am
you re slowly imploding

F C G
your worlds are corroding

F C G
please let it work itself out

F C G
we ve got time to melt

F C G
you haven t said a single thing

F C G F
a six month recurring dream

C G
oil stains

Am F
glisten in this light

C Em Am F
fluorescent yellow blue and red

C G Am F
it s not worth talking

when everything goes left unsaid

C
the freezing rain

G
slants down in icy sheets

Am
on some street where someone

F C
is cursing what they've done

Em
and walking quickly toward the train

Am
cold and dejected

F C G
in a brightly lit steel frame

F C G
please let it work itself out

F C G
we've got time to melt

F C G
you haven't said a single thing

F C G F
a six month recurring dream

C G Am F
your eyes are a cloudy morning

C Em Am F
my lips are this sealed letter

C G Am F
ineptly yours, sincerely sorry

C Em
it's something you feel

Am F
in the sole out of your shoe

C G
on a loud city bus

Am F
on some aching afternoon
