

Warped Summer Extravaganza
The Lawrence Arms

Like most of Chris s Sundowner stuff I think this is Capo d on the fourth.
I m not 100% on the chord progressions but I think it sounds good like this, as long as you have fun playing it who really cares anyway.

Peace out, Stephen. LARRY ARMS FOREVER!

C G
it s burning and it s burning, it s burning,
Am G F
a fire inside that i just don t believe
C G
some call it anger, some say frustration
Am G F
but i think i call this big greed
C G
this time the circus has left without us
Am G F
and we could run away
C G
the fringe is the center now,
Am G F (quickly)
hey boys that s great

C
when i woke up in hawthorne,
G Am G F
i took ocean down to the fairground to see everyone
C G Am
so beautiful that i drown in the waves of the haircuts
G F
spin kicks and jumps
C G Am F
well i got my bottled water and my nachos,
Am G F
it came in under twenty bucks
C G
i got this bad taste in the back of my mouth
Am G F
from my time on the back of a bus

C G
this summer vacation, it s cheap and it s true
Am G F
it s ideals are intact, it s the best we can do
C G
this time you turn into your own enemy

F

Am G F x 2

FF

C G Am F x 2

mother fucker! (end on C)